BROWARD COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENT OFFERS HIV/AIDS 101 TRAINING

Class open to the general public and professions whose certifications require certificate of training in HIV/AIDS.

BROWARD COUNTY – Broward County Health Department is offering a four hour HIV/AIDS 101 Training Class on Tuesday, January 26, 2010 from 8:30AM to 12:30PM in the 2nd floor auditorium at the Fort Lauderdale Health Center. The Health Center is located at 2421 SW 6th Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, 33315.

The HIV/AIDS 101 Training Class is recommended for persons in professions whose certification does not specify Continuing Education Units (CEU's), but requires certificate of training in HIV/AIDS. The class provides the basics and fundamentals of HIV/AIDS and participants will receive information on the latest HIV medications, research and comprehensive HIV prevention. The class also provides information on national, regional and local statistics and discussions on evidenced based interventions. There is a $20 fee for those seeking certification (a certificate will be issued at the end of the class). If no certification is needed, attendance is free of charge, on a first come first served basis.

Participants are encouraged to register early. For more information, or to register call (954) 467-4955 or (954) 467-4750.

Broward County Health Department is an equal opportunity provider. If you require accommodations for this class, please call (954) 467-4955 no later than 12Noon, Monday, January 25, 2010.
